About the Conference

Lecture 1: Cosmetic Dentistry: What, When, Where, How?

Synopsis: In the history of the dental profession, there has never been such a rapid change in dental materials and their uses. How do you decide what to use, where, when and how to use it.

Learning Objectives:

- What restorative materials to use in different situations
- Where to use veneers or onlays instead of full crowns
- When to use direct composite resin instead of porcelain
- How to design preparations for different materials

Lecture 2: Minimal Preparation = Maximum Longevity

Synopsis: This lecture will highlight the systems used to achieve predictable excellence in cosmetic restorative procedures including a review of these systems and how to use minimal preparation for maximum strength with all-ceramic adhesively retained restorations.

Learning Objectives:

- Preparation guidelines for minimum reduction with more strength
- Managing soft tissue and taking ideal impressions every time
- Complete and seal finished restorations with predictability

Conference Pricing: Dentists: USD$995 + tx / Auxiliaries: USD$295 + tx

About the Celebrity Millennium

Inspired by the Celebrity Edge, the Celebrity Millennium was the first in Celebrity's fleet to undergo the new "Celebrity Revolution" transformation program in January 2019. Cabins have been redesigned, 30 new staterooms have been added and the Retreat Lounge will take the place of the former Michael's Club. All dining and bar experiences from the Main Dining Room to the Ocean View Café, Sunset Bar, RendezVous Lounge, Qsine and more have been upgraded and the virtual Le Petit Chef is now de rigueur. All of the spa areas have been redesigned and enlarged and offer many of the features and amenities of the SEA Thermal Suite, but most importantly a chance to relax and rejuvenate! Let's not forget the shoppers, new designer boutiques have been added, the casino updated and the photo and art galleries revamped. There really is something for everyone!
